

Statement of Representative Harold Ford

We know Iraq had chemical and biological weapons at one point. But we don't know if they were destroyed, hidden, or even transferred to other nations or terrorist groups. With the $35 billion we spend on intelligence, we should be doing better. An Independent Commission will remove these issues from partisanship and ask the tough questions that need to be answered about how to modernize and reform our intelligence system.